

Anti-anxiety Medications

These medications work by diminishing the activity of certain parts of the brain, called the limbic system. The symptoms associated with anxiety may include tension, agitation, irritability, panic attacks, and feelings of dying or going crazy. Physical symptoms include excessive sweating, heart palpitations, chills, fainting, racing pulse and flushes. Anxiety may be a disorder by itself or a component of other psychiatric disorders.

Medication	Generic Name
1. Atarax	hydroxyzine
2. Ativan	lozazepam
3. BuSpar	buspirone
4. Catapres	clonidine
5. Centrax	prazepam
6. Corgard	nadolol
7. Dalmane	flurazepam
8. Deprol	meprobamate+benactyzine
9. Doral	quezepam
10. Equanil	meprobamate
11. Halcion	triazolam
12. Klonopin	clonazepam
13. Inderal	propranolol
14. Librium	chlordiazepoxide
15. Libritabs	chlordiazepoxide
16. Lopressor	metoprolol
17. Miltown	meprobamate
18. Paxipam	halazepam
19. Restoril	temazepam
20. Serax	oxazepam
21. Tenormin	atenolol
22. Tranxene	chlorazepate
23. Transcopal	chlormezanone
24. Valium	diazepam
25. Valrelease	diazepam
26. Vistaril	hydroxyzine
27. Xanax	alprazolam

PLEASE NOTE: The contents of this NASET document are for informational purposes only. The content is not intended to be a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.