

NASET NEWS ALERT

Home-Schooling During Covid-19 School Closings

Now that most of the nation's schools have closed because of the coronavirus, the stress on teachers and parents to help their children learn while home has increased dramatically. This NASET News Alerts is one that you can provide to the parents of your students to provide them with guidelines to home schooling and working with you for the best interest of the students in your class.

---

Home-Schooling Tweens and Teens During Coronavirus Closings

Advice from experts and home-schoolers on what do with your children if their schools are closed. Read more

<https://www.nytimes.com/2020/03/12/well/family/coronavirus-school-closings-homeschooling-tweens-teens.html>

Teaching kids at home due to coronavirus? Homeschooling moms share their tips

As the new coronavirus spreads, schools across the country are closing their doors and encouraging parents to help kids complete schoolwork at home until risk of catching or spreading COVID-19 have passed. Read more...

<https://www.today.com/parents/coronavius-schools-closed-here-s-how-teach-kids-home-t175904>

As new coronavirus spreads, know your homeschool and online learning options

COVID-19 is affecting many students' learning, triggering state-wide class cancellations and shifting in-person classes online. Around the U.S., more than 74,000 schools are closed, were closed and have been reopened, or are scheduled to close, impacting more than 38.8 million students. As families evaluate how to keep their children safe and healthy while still learning, we have compiled the following resources to help families navigate these unique times. Read more...

<https://schoolchoiceweek.com/as-new-coronavirus-spreads-know-your-homeschool-and-online-learning-options/>

If your child's school closes, don't panic: Here's a list of homeschooling resources

Parents across the country are facing unprecedented school closures as part of the ongoing effort to contain the coronavirus. By the most recent estimates, at least 72,000 of the 98,000 public schools in the U.S. have been impacted by school closures. Read more...

<https://www.mother.ly/child/homeschool-resources-for-school-closures>

A Crash Course on Homeschooling for Parents affected by COVID-19 school Closings

In the midst of the mystery surrounding the COVID-19 virus, over thirty U.S. states have closed their doors to their public schools, leaving parents to supplement their child's education at home.

While school districts organize distant learning plans, here are some helpful tips for parents new to homeschooling. Read more...

<https://thenorthstar.com/a-crash-course-on-homeschooling-for-parents-affected-by-covid-19-school-closings/>

How to Support Home Learning in Elementary Grades

A first and second grade teacher shares his home learning plan for his students and how he is engaging their families. Read more...

<https://www.edutopia.org/article/how-support-home-learning-early-elementary>

Seattle teacher offers tips for teaching kids at home during school closures

As students across Washington state prepare for six weeks without school, teachers are sharing ideas to keep your child productive and learning in the times of coronavirus closures and social distancing. Read more...

<https://www.king5.com/article/news/health/coronavirus/seattle-teacher-offers-tips-for-teaching-kids-at-home-during-school-closures/281-7293d363-99d4-4af6-9ca2-913ab72c04a9>